

SWINDON FESTIVAL OF LITERATURE 2010

Thursday 13 May 2010

7.30-9.30pm

Swindon Central Library Reading Area, Level 2

Cliff-Hanger Story Evening

Members of Swindon Speakers Club will read their short stories of not more than 5 minutes each with a Cliff Hanger at 3 minutes. When all the stories have been read the audience will be invited to choose which story they would like to hear to the end.

Members of the audience are invited to bring along their own 5-minute short stories. These must be original, with original characters and have a Cliff Hanger at 3 minutes. The stories will be read to the 3 minute point, then stopped. When all the stories have been read the audience will select which story they would like to hear to the end.

Prizes will be awarded and the winners will recount their complete stories.

Time is limited, and therefore participation will be on a first come first served basis on the return of the tear-off slip below BY THURSDAY 6 MAY.
